The Popular "Buick."

Read what the Hamilton County Sheriff has to say about his Buick "17," 4,600 miles without repairs of any kind:

Cincinnati, O., July 7, 1910. The Leyman-Buick Co., Cincinnati: Gentlemen—Having traveled about 1,450 miles in the Buick that I brought from you some months ago, and as yet being unacquainted with the appearance of the interior of a repair shop, I cannot refrain from voicing my approbation of the "Buick" Model 17. There may be a better car for the money, but if there is I have never met it on the road, either up hill, down hill or on the level.

Yours respectfully,
HENRY W. HAMANN.

At Indianapolis Speedway last week Buick stock cars defeated the floor of American cars in 50 and 100 miles trophy races, winning them in fine style and smashing all stock car world records.

The Buick finished 75 yard behind the winner in the 400 mile Cobe Trophy race after losing 80 seconds on account of tire trouble.

Stripes Can be Changed Now.

You can easily change the stripes and spots on your potato bugs if you are willing to devote a few spare moments to zoological research. Nobby effects in chrome, yellow and pink are being shown at the University of Chicago laboratories. Full information may be obtained from Prof. William L. Tower at the University.

This notice may relieve the amateur gardeners who heretofore have had to apply to the agricultural journals and the household column for their insect information during the potato season. Professor Tower yesterday told the summer students about his bug achievements in a lecture soon "Experimental Evolution" at Kent's theater, and his expert advice may be followed by all who wish to combine pleasure and real novelty in gardening. Raising potatoes is hard work, but raising bugs is dead easy.

Professor Tower has investigated the potato bug and is more or less high toned elation for fifteen years, and knows whereof he speaks.

In his most recent experiments he has obtained potato bugs of the most striking shades and patterns, all through his skill and inventiveness in utilizing the methods of selection, hybridization and eternal modification of biological science.

The humble garden bug is known in the scientific books at the genus lepidotarsa, and it is under this name that the university professor has tricked to its lair in various parts of America and changed its ideas of dress. The genius lepidotarsa now may put on airs before the rest of the chrysomelid beetles, for it is the leader of the bugville fashion.

Professor Tower has developed so many new varieties of the lepidotarsa that an ordinary lepidotarsa bug might have difficulty in recognizing its own family. He accomplished this by subjecting the ger plas of lepidotarsa to chemical stimuli by crossing them in different environments. The parent bug produced new species with and without spots and longitudinal stripes and with widely varying characteristics.

In one experiment a variation was found which Professor Tower said would work havoc in anybody's garden while another was so weak that it could not survive the struggle of climbing up a potato vine a result that may be suggestive to gardeners who wish to increase or decrease their crops.

Another complicated test carried out in Mexico and the southwestern States with three types of lepidotarsa, developed different bugs in each locality, proving that the bringing together of like forms under unlike conditions will produce different results.

Professor Tower's experiments are regarded as important proofs of the effect of environment in hybridization. The professor declared that even more striking results might be obtained from future laboratory tests.

Saved at Death's Door.

The door of death seemed ready to open for Murray W. Ayers, of Transit Bridge, N. Y., when his life was wonderfully saved. "I was in a dreadful condition," he writes, "my skin was almost yellow; eyes sunken; tongue coated; emaciated from losing 40 lbs., growing weaker daily. Virulent liver trouble pulling me down to death in spite of doctors. Then that matchless medicine, Electric Bitters, cured me. I regained 40 lbs. lost and now am well and strong." For stomach, liver, kidneys its supreme. 50c at Oberdorfer.

Government to Try New Plan.

Instead of granting conditional pardons to convicts in whom the Governor has not sufficient faith to grant a full and free pardon Gov. Willson in the future will issue orders respiting the sentence imposed by the courts thus suspending it until such time as the man's own conduct shall end the respite.

Gov. Willson says that the conditional pardons is a good thing as it enables him to release from the prison a convict about whose case he is in doubt and instead of letting him go free keeps a string tied to him so that he can be brought back.

As the question has been raised of the Governor's right to grant a conditional pardon, he has changed his form and in the future, if there is a condition attached to the release of a convict, he will not be given a pardon, but the suspension of the sentence will be by order of the Governor, made on a special form, and the person accepting his order must sign a paper pledging himself to accept the terms of the order.

Senator Tillman in London Fog.

Since his visit to Europe, Senator Tillman has a fund of new stories, which sound properly filtered and possess the truest continental flavor. In London he enjoyed a real "pea soup," fog; to get a good view of it he took a ride on top of a bus, which passed slowly along the streets as though feeling its way. The wintry chill pinched his nose and ears the fog dripped Niobe-like around him; everything was mist and sticky; sound was deadened; cabs and foot passengers climbed up for a moment like phantoms, and disappeared as suddenly.

"If I was a scholar," said the bus driver, emphasizing his final "d," "I'd always talk Latin on this sort of a day."

The Senator asked why. "You know, these folks all look like ghosts and ghouls to me—and Latin's the proper language to talk to spirits in. It's well known they won't answer if they're spoke to in English."

Besides the Senator was a Paisee, wearing a red fez. The driver cast sundry curious glances at him, during the frequent pauses necessitated by the fog. When the man got off, he said:

"You're an American, sir, but would you mind telling me where that chap hails from who's wearing that monk's cap?"

"He is a sun-worshiper, they are called Parsees."

"Well, well—worships the sun, does he? I suppose he's come here to 'ave a little rest from his prayers, and he glanced expressively at the wet, shivering passengers, and the gloomy, cheerless slice of street faintly visible through the fog.—Joe Mitchell Chaplin in "Affairs at Washington, in the National Magazine for August.

Cleopatra's Envy.

Her caller picked up a little round gilt mirror that was on the arm of the big willow chair. "Dainty little thing," he said, holding it up and turning it over and over. "What would Cleopatra have given for such a little mirror as this, to put where she could find it when she wanted it? Worlds! To think of that beauty, whose only mirrors were polished silver. We don't know what an age we live in," he reflected as he laid it down.

Everywhere life is being made more safe through the work of Dr. King's New Life Pills in constipation, biliousness, dyspepsia, indigestion, liver troubles, kidney diseases, bowel disorders. They're easy, but sure, and perfectly build up the health. 25c at Oberdorfer's.

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel just right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and so GIVES HEALTH AND STRENGTH TO THE WHOLE BODY.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Ingredients printed on wrapper.

Constipation Cure Free

With the first signs of constipation resort to the home methods of relief, such as hot or cold water on arising, lots of stewed fruit with your breakfast, etc., but what do you do when these fail?

The majority then start on salts and purgative waters, then change to cathartic pills, etc. If you have gone through these various stages you know they were all useless, so far as permanent results go. Now you should try just once again, but try something practical and sensible, a remedy made and intended for the purpose you are trying to accomplish. Such a remedy, as thousands can testify, is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which is guaranteed to be permanent in its results. Its ingredients are such that by a brief use of it the stomach and bowel muscles are trained to again do their work normally, so that in the end you can do away with medicines of all kinds. That it will do this Mr. G. Y. Dodson of Sanville, Va., will gladly attest, and so will Mrs. S. A. Hampton of Portage, O.

To those who are still skeptical there is a way to prove these assertions without a penny of expense: Simply send your name and address to Dr. Caldwell and obtain a free sample bottle. After using it, if you are then convinced it is the remedy you need, buy a fifty cent or one dollar bottle of your druggist and continue to use it for a brief time until cured. The directions are simple and the dose is small. It is pleasant to the taste, does not grip and is promptly effective, and these statements are guaranteed or money will be refunded.

This remedy is over a quarter of a century old and is personally taken by more druggists than any other similar remedy on the American market. Because of its effectiveness, purity and pleasant taste it is the ideal laxative remedy for children, women and old folks generally.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R. 500 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

LOWEST RAILROAD RATES EVER GRANTED TO THE SOUTH

Announced for the Appalachian Exposition.

Unprecedented Southern Show
to Be Given at Knoxville, Tenn., September 12
to October 12.

The Appalachian Exposition, to be held at Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 12 to Oct. 12 of this year, will get the lowest coach excursion railroad rates ever granted for transportation of exposition visitors in the south. This rate of approximately one cent per mile has been authorized by the Southeastern Passenger association, which includes all the railroads in the southeastern territory, of which the Appalachian region is a greater part.

The splendid rate concessions which the railroads have made the Appalachian Exposition assure its success in point of attendance, as thousands of people will visit the great event who could not do so were the rates not so remarkably cheap. This is a great concession which the people throughout the Appalachian region will appreciate. The exposition being especially designed for the states of this region, Tennessee, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Kentucky, they will be splendidly represented in the attendance.

The coach rate tickets will be on sale on Tuesdays and Thursdays during the exposition period. Upon other days, a rate of one and one-half cents per mile will be granted.

Coach excursion tickets will be sold from all points within a radius of 250 miles of Knoxville, on Tuesdays, Sept. 13, 20 and 27, and Oct. 4. These tickets will be limited to five days exclusive of date of sale.

Coach excursion tickets will also be sold from all points south of the Ohio and Potomac rivers and east of the Mississippi river, on Thursdays, Sept. 15, 22 and 29, and Oct. 6. Limit on these tickets will be eight days in addition to the date of sale.

Tickets at the rate of one and one-half cents per mile will be sold every day from Sept. 10 to Oct. 12, inclusive, final limit of ten days, not to exceed Oct. 18.

The one cent per mile, or "coach excursion" tickets, will not be good for transportation in Pullman sleepers, being confined to coaches exclusively. The one and one-half cent round trip tickets, however, will be good for any part of the train, from smoker to Pullman sleeper.

Some of the rates on the coach basis, from the point of selling to Knoxville and return, are as follows: Washington, $10.75; Richmond, $9.45; Norfolk, $11.05; Memphis, $8.70; Cincinnati, $6.40; Atlanta, $3.80; New Orleans, $12.45; Jacksonville, $11.20; St. Louis, $12.55; Augusta, $7.20; Charleston, $10.80; Chattanooga, $2.22; Bristol, $2.62; Nashville, $4.36.

Detailed information as to rates from any point may be obtained from H. F. Cary, general passenger agent of the Southern railway, Washington, D. C.; or W. A. Russell, general passenger agent of the Louisville & Nashville railroad, Louisville, Ky., of the Appalachian Exposition, Arnstein building, Knoxville, Tenn.

The main lines of the Southern and L. & N. railroads reach Knoxville, and through trains and direct connections with other roads from all points on these great systems make fast time into Knoxville. The railroads are already making extensive preparations for additional equipment and trains for the accommodation of this exposition business. It is confidently expected that at least 250,000 people will visit the exposition during the four weeks of its duration. Now that such unprecedentedly low railroad rates have been granted, the attendance may be even greater.

The Public Comfort department of the exposition is planning for housing and feeding every exposition visitor, as Knoxville's homes will be thrown open as well as its many large and new or remodeled hotels. One hostelry of 100 rooms has just been completed and opened, and another of more than 150 rooms is nearing completion and will be opened before the exposition period.

MARBLE BAND STAND FOR APPALACHIAN EXPOSITION.

The Appalachian Exposition, to be held at Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 12 to Oct. 12, next, will have a band stand that will become famous as have the two great bands which the exposition has engaged for the month. This band stand will be a beautiful structure and an exhibit. It will be built of the many varieties of marble that are furnished by the great quarries of East Tennessee, having high foundations and ten large columns constructed of sawed blocks, the floor being of polished pink and white marble. The size of this stand will be 35x35, the shape being octagonal, and the roof designed to give the most pleasing effect. The marble for this band stand will be furnished by quarry and mill companies of Knoxville, which will also make extensive displays of marble and marble products in the main building of the exposition.

MOWERS

Are Different From All Others

When the late Walter A. Wood built his first mower in 1862 it was upon a principle entirely different from any other. That same principle today distinguishes our mowers from all others. It is the "floating frame" described so fully in our catalog. All manufacturers of mowers admit that the "direct under-draft" principle is the correct one—but they can't use it because genuine under-draft is possible only with the "floating frame" construction which is exclusive to Walter A. Wood Mowers. We feel justified in asserting that our mowers are: the easiest running; lightest draft; handiest to operate; least expensive to keep in repair and longest lived. The mower that leads on these points is the mower it will pay the farmer to buy. There are many other good points fully illustrated and described in our Catalog. Write for it today.

Hager Pushing Campaign.

Hon. Edgar Hager, of Ashland, was in the city yesterday enroute to Harrison county, where he was scheduled to deliver three speeches yesterday. Mr. Hager is pushing his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Congress from the Ninth District and states that reports from all over the district are very encouraging as to his success in the race.

Two years ago Mr. Hager was defeated by the Hon. James M. Kehoe, of Mason county, for the nomination for the same office and is now in the field against three candidates. County conventions will be held throughout the district on Saturday, July 23 and delegates selected to meet in the district convention at Carlisle on July 27.

Mr. Hager is a Democrat of the old school and is using every honorable means in pushing his candidacy for the nomination. Following his defeat two years ago he took the stump in behalf of the successful candidate that opposed him in the race for the nomination. By so doing Mr. Hager demonstrated his loyalty to the party and the Democrats of the Ninth District could do no better in making him their candidate. He is making his canvas on a high, broad plane and his success in the convention would mean the redeeming of the Ninth District to Democracy.

Montgomery County Fair.

Beginning with July 19 and continuing five consecutive days at Mt. Sterling, Ky., the Montgomery County Fair Association will hold its regular annual county fair, which bids to be one of the most elaborate occasions in the State in its nature. The Association is offering in the neighborhood of $8,000 as premiums and has proposed a number of speed and show stakes running from $100 to $500 each, to be exhibited during the fair. Each day will have an entertaining speed program and show classes. The championship class (the three-year-old five-gaited saddle class) the sweepstake saddle class, the roadster classes and harness horses will be a delightful feature, and the Association says, "that never before was such a prospect for an assemblage of great horses in the State, in show and speed lines. The cattle, sheep, hogs and poultry prospect is great." There will be a Midway made up of the cleanest shows throughout the country will be on night and day and the fair company will have the music for the fair furnished by Saxton & Frost Military Band of Lexington, Ky. Aside from this they have negotiated for a special band for the Midway and will negotiate for the third. It is predicted that from Tuesday, the day of the beginning, to the close at 12 o'clock on Saturday night, the entire grounds will be thronged with people. If the weather will be favorable, the occasion will be without a parallel in the State in the line of county fairs.

Decides Against the State.County Judge Hughes at Harrodsburg decided against the State in the test case brought to determine whether whiskey stored in a bonded warehouse is subject to a State tax on the storage and income and storage therefrom. The case was that of the State of Kentucky against Col. John B.
Thompson for tax on whiskey contained in the warehouses of the old Jordan distillery in this city.The State was represented by Assistant Attorney General John F. Lockett, while Col. Thompson looked after the interest of the distillery. Judge Locke, cited numerous authorities and decisions on similar cases and made a most able argument. Col. Thompson entered a demurrer to the petition, in which he contended that the tax could not be collected prior to the delivery of the whiskey to the holders of the warehouse receipts. Judge Hughes sustained Col. Thompson's demurrer.
It is understood that this action is intended as a test case and will be carried to the higher courts by the State for final adjudication.Buck's New Barber Shop.Go to Buck's new barber shop for a

With the bitter always comes the sweet! The Colts were defeated yesterday afternoon, but it took the Bourbonites ten innings to turn the trick, winning out by a score of 3 to 2, in a game sensational from the tap of the game until a natty suited Bourbonite trotted in the extra session with the winning run.

The Bourbonites took to the going in the opening session and forced ahead with two tallies. Kuhlman, the first up, was safe on a grounder which Horn fumbled and went to third on Kaiser's drive to left which Ellis muffed. Kaiser taking second. Goodman and Barnett then drew passes forcing in Kuhlman, Kaiser scoring on Chapman's fly to center. Holder fanned trying the side.

Lexington put one over the rubber in the fifth session. Wahoo fouled to home. Sheets walked and stole second, king third on Holder's high fly to the base and scored on Holder's single to center.

With the locals one run the best of the argument at the opening of the ninth, the luck of the Colts played a prominent part in the tying of the score which sent the game into an extra inning. Kaiser misjudged Ellis' high fly, the runner taking second. Wahoo beat out a grounder to Kuhlman and Ellis made the third sack with but little trouble. Sheets went out to Scheneberg Horan reacting first on a choice, grounding to Maxwell and forcing Wahoo at second, Ellis scoring. Kline fled to Goldman retiring the side.

In their half of the ninth the locals came near putting over the winning run, and were only prevented in so doing by a close decision at the plate. Barnett went to first on four bad ones, took second on a pass ball and was advanced to third on Chapman's sacrifice. Holder grounded to Kline, and Barnett was caught at the plate in a neat double play, Kline to Meyers to Wahoo.

When the game entered into the tenth frame Scheneberg preferred to take no chance on the heavy hitting Oyler and propusely gave him a free ride to the first sack. Tightening up, Sinex and Voiz, the next two who faced him, whiffed the wind and the best Meyers could do was to ground to McKernan, retiring the side.

The winning run, which came in the tenth was of the clean cut order, and came over the platter as a result of the hitting of Kuhlman and Maxwell. Maxwell, who was the first up, singled to left and took second on Holder's sacrifice. Kuhlman singled to the left garden, Maxwell racing home on the drive. The score:

Batters-Parris, Scheneberg and Holder; Lexington Kline and Wahoo. Hits-Paris 5; Lexington 6. Errors-Paris 1; Lexington 2. Two base Hits-Ellis. Stolen bases-Wahoo. Sacrifice hits-Chapman, Scheneberg, Sinex. Sacrifice fly-Chapman. Base on balls-off Scheneberg 4; off Kline 3. Struck out-by Scheneberg 5; by Kline 7. Balk-Scheneberg. Pass ball-Wahoo. Time-1:50. NOTES.

Viox played a sensational game at short yesterday.

Maxwell and Kuhlman did the work in the tenth when Maxwell lined out one to center and Kuhlman a beautiful single which wound up the game.

Lexington was considerably strengthened in yesterday's game by having Tommy Sheets in the center garden. Sheets plays all around Yancey and don't make half the trouble.

The Check Returned.

John Lett, of East Tennessee who buys cattle through Central Kentucky, recently became the father of a fine boy. He is an intense republican and named the baby Joe Cannon. Some one sent word to "Uncle Joe" and he sent a check for one hundred dollars as a present or the kid. Shortly after the check was returned with a letter from the father stating that "during my absence my wife named the baby William Jennings Bryan and won't surrender." So the kid is out one hundred dollars, but is the center of attraction for the few Democrats in that benighted region.
